York Disability Rights Forum

Together, we're harder to ignore.

Led by disabled people, YDRF speaks up on the issues raised by our members. We campaign for change and work with decision-makers to improve life for disabled people in York.

Make our voice stronger.

York Disability Rights Forum brings together disabled people with a wide range of experiences and perspectives, as well as people who share our commitment to disability rights.

Join today.

Get involved as much or as little as you like. Simply becoming a member strengthens our collective voice and shows decision-makers they should pay attention.

Membership is free and open to anyone aged 18 or over who lives, works, studies or is otherwise connected to York.
